

Wot Price Flash continued his good form of late with another victory at Traralgon on Saturday night. Trained by Warragul committeeman Garry Allen, Wot Price Prince is one of the most consistent dogs racing in Gippsland at the present time. He commenced racing in January of this year and has since raced on 15 occasions recording 7 wins and 7 places. Traralgon has been a happy hunting ground where he has won 6 races; the other victory was at Healesville. Bred by Robyn Inger; Wot Price Flash is by 2012 Warragul Cup winner Stagger from Robyn's brood bitch Hippy Chic who recorded a number of wins at Gippsland tracks.
